

BERRY FLOYD LAWS III & MEREDITH MCCRORY LAWS

FOUNDERS
GLOBAL ALTRUISM FOUNDATION

For over six years, we have traveled extensively with a lot of time in Central America living and sharing experiences with many wonderful people from all different cultures. After our years of extensive travel and seeing the results of natural disasters and the plight of so many under privileged all over the world, we decided to create Global Altruism Foundation to use as a platform to help the needy in our World community.

Berry F. Laws III is a former US Marine and retired lawyer who practiced for 32 years in Kansas City, Missouri. He founded Martin Leigh Laws & Fritzlen in 1989, after over 25 years as the Managing Partner he retired in 2012. The firm's emphasis was in representing the Mortgage Industry. Under his direction, Mokaan Title Services, LLC was created in 1999 to complement the firm's services. In 2012, Mokaan Title Services was acquired by LenderLive Network and rebranded in 2019 to Covius with headquarters in Glendale, Colorado. Mr. Laws continues to assist with Covius as the Director of Strategic Initiatives. As an active entrepreneur seeking viable business opportunities, he has many holdings within different industries and the real estate mortgage sector.

Meredith McCrory-Laws has been providing consulting services with respect to marketing, strategic alliances, expansion projects, client relations and business development for the residential mortgage servicing industry since 2006. Clients have included: several law firms throughout the country, national service of process provider, industry technology platforms, and nationwide title and settlement services. Prior to consulting, she served as the Director of Marketing & National Accounts for a Liberty Title & Escrow. In addition, throughout her career she has held positions in the mortgage banking industry including; Citizen's Mortgage Corporation's Origination President's Club member representing the top ten percent of the bank's mortgage sales force, managed a wholesale team handling Fleet Bank Tele-sales as a Production Manager for Option One Mortgage Corporation, Senior Wholesale Underwriter for Accredited Home Lenders and Operational Sales Manager at Greenwich Mortgage Corporation. Ms. McCrory has been in the mortgage real estate industry for over 24 years starting with her experience at Dream House Mortgage Corporation originating all types of mortgages nationwide.
